PPA Presents Mel Brodsky with Mortar and Pestle Award

Harrisburg, PA --- The Pennsylvania Pharmacists Association (PPA) recently honored Mel Brodsky, RPh with the Mortar and Pestle Award during PPA's 2016 Annual Conference held at the Crowne Plaza Philadelphia – King of Prussia on Saturday, September 24th.

The Mortar and Pestle Award is one of special recognition presented solely at the discretion of the PPA Board of Directors which recognizes service to the pharmacy profession.

Brodsky is 1966 graduate of Temple School of Pharmacy, and has been a pharmacist for over 50 years. After moving to Chicago, Brodsky returned to Philadelphia and opened his own pharmacy, Parkway Drugs Inc. In 1996, he started the Keystone Pharmacy Purchasing Alliance, now fully owned by the Philadelphia Association of Retail Druggists. He currently serves as the CEO of Keystone Pharmacy Purchasing Alliance, and is the Executive Director of PARD.

Founded in 1878, the Pennsylvania Pharmacists Association is a professional membership organization of more than 2,300 pharmacists and pharmacy students across the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, representing almost all facets of pharmacy practice. As the leading voice of pharmacy in Pennsylvania, it promotes the profession through advocacy, education, and communication to enhance patient care and public health.
